Dann steht Yeti Jo auf und läuft hinaus in den Sturm. Und sucht.
Und findet.

Así es que Yeti Jo se levanta y sale de la cueva en medio de la tormenta. Y busca.
Y encuentra lo que buscaba.
